JONATHAN ADLER

Designer Digs

DARRYL CARTER

Housed in a pre-Civil War building in DC's Shaw neighborhood, designer Darryl Carter's new home-décor shop, opening in October 2012, will showcase a mix of antiques, new upholstery pieces and Carter's own line of textiles. 1320 9th Street, NW, Washington, DC; darrylcarter.com

GREAT FALLS DISTINCTIVE INTERIORS

Elaborate vignettes make this 6,000-square-foot showroom look more like a home than a full-service design center where consumers can browse fabric, carpet, furniture and lighting libraries. Appointments only. 44675 Cape Court, Suite 171, Ashburn, Virginia; 703-858-7688; gfdii.com

JONATHAN ADLER

After a couple of false starts, the Georgetown store offering the New York-based designer's hip furniture and mod accessories is slated to open in November 2012. 1267 Wisconsin Avenue, NW, Washington, DC; jonathanadler.com

SHOWROOM 1412

Interior designer Lori Graham has partnered with gallery curator Lauren Gentile and Mike Johnson of the late vintage shop 1659 to fill a chic townhouse showroom with unique furniture, accessories and art. 1412 14th Street, NW, Washington, DC; 202-745-0118; showroom1412.com

TIMOTHY PAUL

Located in Merrifield's new Mosaic District, this showroom opening in October 2012 offers a larger take on the DC shops focusing on handmade rugs and textiles, bedding, furniture and antique and vintage pieces. 2910 District Avenue, Suite 140, Fairfax, Virginia; timothypaulhome.com
